Not a Boy Toy...a Gal Pal!

Date: Monday :: September 11 :: 2006

< Facelt >

Skid marks are never a good thing – especially when they are on clothes. Why advertise your grooming habits, right? This little product will wipe away any evidence.

It's called Gal Pals. For ladies who love their little lack dresses and tight dark t-shirts, this is the answer that a damp wash cloth can't provide.

Just a few swipes of these pink, spongy discs, and the evidence you're staying sweet-smelling and dry thanks to your favorite deodorant/antiperspirant is gone. Dampen the Gal Pal to remove stubborn marks. They're lighter and stiffer than a kitchen sponge, travel easy and save you lots of money on dry cleaning.

They truly are pals of gals!

BUY IT!

Skid marks usually refers to the marks found on people's white underwear. That's what I thought you were talking about while I was laughing.

I thought I was going to read about the skid marks from the white underwear too, so I busted a gut too. Skid marks of any kind are a turn off so chicks outta pick up the gal pal stuff. And getting a boy toy ain't such a bad idea. Where do I apply?
